Purposes and Legal Basis

The legal basis for processing data within the ICS is of a Legitimate Interest, supported by the consent of the member.

The Legitimate Interest is the collection and processing of data to enable communication with members about club activities and meetings without which such communication is impossible and which has been undertaken in this manner since the club was formed.

Data will be collected from new members or confirmed when existing members renew after payment of the annual subscription.

The processing of data is carried out as by a “non-for-profit body” and only to subscribed members.

Data Collected

- 1) Full Names
- 2) Email address
- 3) Contact Telephone Numbers
- 4) Postal address
- 5) Date of Membership

The data is kept in the Contacts section of the ICS Gmail account icsalobrena2016@gmail.com

Recipients

Members' data is given to other members of the club only if permission is given and data is never given to a third party unless permission is specifically given by a member.

Members reserve the right to anonymity and privacy of their data within the club

Countries

Data is never transferred to another country

Retention

All data is deleted at the end of a subscription year if membership is not renewed.

Rights of individuals

- 1) The right to access personal data.
- 2) The right to rectify personal data.
- 3) The right to erase personal data.
- 4) The right to data portability.
- 5) The right to object to the processing of personal data.
- 6) The right to withdraw consent at any time (of specific data where applicable)
- 7) The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office
